Bashkortostan, The Land of Solace Bashkortostan is a region which is the a part of Russia.
The capital of Bashkortostan is Ufa. This land is situated on the Ural mountains, which provides a home to a vast amount of flora and fauna.

The land is valuable to me as a home, which is rich in a vast amount of natural resources and picturesque landscapes.
It is also a cultural hotspot with a diverse background of people living here.

First of all, the natural resources provided here helps for the development of the economy and offers jobs to its residents. Secondly, the diverse nature is a source of fresh air for the residents of Bashkortostan.

Moving on to the topic of culture, Bashkortostan is a mix of different ethnic groups. Originally, the land of Bashkirs, an ethnic group of nomadic tribes that settled here, now it also has different other ethnicities. This diverse background gives people a sense of identity with its unique culture, and traditions and art forms.

Bashkortostan has provided many a safe home, quality education, food and other essential resources in life. This will enable all to be successful in life, with a stable source of income for a comfortable life.

To conclude, There is no denial that Bashkortostan only has merits to point out. As the list of what it has provided is innumerable, it is only justified to give back more.
