The Republic of Bashkortostan is a motherland for diverse nationalities, which provides people with ~~many~~ natural resources and cultural sights. There is no doubts that for me, as a person who has been living there since childhood, Bashkortostan is not only a land but the place, which I am proud of and I value the most for various reasons such as great history, unique people and wonderful nature.

Firstly, the main point of what makes my motherland valuable for me is the society at first, which consists of incredible people. Bashkortostan is famous for its history and brave people who fight for others, whose lives were under threat. For instance, Salawat Yulayev is a great example of extraordinary national heroes. He protected not only his motherland but also people's point of view in order to achieve the independence and basic human's rights.

Secondly, the nature of Bashkortostan is another reason why I <sup>so</sup> greatly appreciate my motherland. Tourists and local people are ~~impress~~ amazed by its picturesque landscapes, a number of <sup>rare</sup> animals, huge forests, rivers and ponds.

One of the example of marvellous sights is the Sulgan Tash cave. In there ancient traces and fantastic views might be seen by visitors.

In conclusion, Bashkortostan is a home for its every respondent and a motherland which is valued by people because of all opportunities for exciting life and pride it provides.
