Undoubtedly, my motherland Bashkortostan is absolutely valuable for me for many reasons. In this essay I am going to discuss this topic and explain my opinion about why it is important for me.

First, I would mention that the main reason why my motherland is valuable for me is that I have been brought up there. It is a significant place that gives me unforgettable memories with my close people.

Then, I would say that the republic of Bashkortostan is situated near the Ural mountains, that is why we can watch picturesque landscapes the whole year in any season. I am proud of our incredibly beautiful natural destinations and natural resources. We have great waterfalls, huge lands and high mountains.

Moreover, Bashkortostan has a specific and rich culture. There is no such cultural traditions in other countries or regions. Our republic is famous for its honey which is bought by people from different continents. Unique traditions like beekeeping or horse-riding are very exciting to see or try for tourists who visit our region.

In conclusion, I would say that everyone should understand the importance of ~~the~~^a role of the motherland in our lives, as it has a great psychological and cultural value.
