When I met Tom a few years ago he was having quite a bad time of his life. I worked at some bank in the city, and he worked as a waiter at a neighbouring café. I was sitting in a café when I saw him laying the tables and reciting some lines at the same time. I'm glad he has improved since then.

However, not all of us are interested in learning long lists of names and numbers just for fun. Psychologists suggest that the best way is to ask yourself lots of questions as you go along. So, for example, if you were reading about some diseases, you would like to ask yourself questions like: "Does people get it from water?"

Word order – 2- just for fun, go along

Spelling – 2 - psychologists, water

Grammar - 8 - are interested, learning, suggest, the best, questions, were reading, diseases, yourself
