WRITING

~~There have always been different opinions whether~~
Is virtual reality ~~is~~ more appealing than ordinary life?
Some people believe that the real world is irreplaceable whereas their opponents consider digital life to be the best option. Personally, I stick to the first viewpoint.

Real-life world has many advantages over computer games. Primarily, humans are biological and social creatures. ~~which means~~ It means that every person needs face-to-face interactions. Additionally, a life spent in front of a monitor cannot be full and healthy. The absence of real-life friendship, family, hobbies makes existence pointless.

~~In~~ In conclusion, I would state that computers cannot replace the reality. Despite the fact that digital reality ~~is~~ is an essential part of modern society, I strongly believe that everyone needs to control the time ~~spent on~~ ~~gadgets~~ of using gadgets.
