Subject: Dear friend

Hello, Ann!

It's always glad to hear from you! Hope you're doing well.

In your email you asked me about keeping fit and being a vegetarian. I'm ready to answer your questions.

I have been vegetarian for a long time. And the answer 'why?' is hiding in a little story. I'm very sensitive, so when I was on my friend's father farm I saw how much animals suffer before becoming a main dish in restaurants. So idea of eating something that had feelings and family just wears me out. That's the main reason.

As for staying in fit, it's just evening walks and morning exercises. Easy, but helpfully!

Except animals' eat, I'm trying to absolutely avoid eating any junk food. As my friend-doctor said: "It's just speedrunning of stomach cancer". And I'm highly recommend to avoid this poison from your ration too!

It's time for evening walk, so I gotta go. Keep in touch!

Love,

Danny
