ANSWER SHEET

Nowadays, lots of people are moving to cities for a number of important reasons. As part of my project on what are major advantages of living in a city, I have found and analyzed some data, which is given in form of a table. ~~44~~

According to the information provided, the ~~best thing~~ biggest advantage of living in a city is having better opportunities for work and study, mentioned by 36% of the respondents. The second most important thing is having all the modern ~~some~~ conveniences, stated by 26% of people who took part in the opinion polls. The rest of the responses of 38%, included various entertainment and events, better roads and infrastructure and better facilities for sports and art education as potential benefits (26%, 3% and 7% accordingly).

If we look carefully through the statistics given, we could outline a certain pattern in ~~the people's~~ the responses. For instance, having all the modern conveniences and better roads and infrastructure take up more than a third of the ~~table~~ answers, which lets us imply that some people choose to live in a city for the sake of comfort. Also, plenty of people state better opportunities for work and study and better facilities for sports and art education as advantages, so we can assume that plenty of young people would not find that in a small town and decide to move.

A problem that can arise with living in a big city is air ~~and water~~ pollution. To solve it, ~~some~~ everyone could try to drive less, switch to ecologically clean fuel ~~and~~.

In my opinion, living in a big city gives people lots of amazing opportunities, but ~~also~~ has its ~~own~~ own nuances. It is not something that would fit everyone.
