ANSWER SHEET

Some people still asking themselves about the major advantages of living in a city. I made some research and prepared a table with ~~so~~ information about city life. log ~~Let's take a look~~ According to the table, mostly of respondents opted for better opportunities for work and study (36%) as the main advantage of living in a city. Less people chose various entertainment and events (22%). And the smallest amount of ~~people~~ respondents opted for better facilities for sports and art education (7%). gr.

Also, the great amount of people opted for various entertainment because cities have enough money in their budgets to provide events and other entertainment. On the other hand, some people chose better roads and infrastructure. Cities quite often have good roads to prevent traffic jams and car accidents.

Despite all of the advantages of living in a city, there are some problems that can arise with it. For example, it can be too loud for some people to live in a ~~humble~~ city. For those I would recommend to add to your windows extra glass. sp, gr.

In conclusion I want to say that life in a big city is exciting and have a lot of great advantages, but in the same time some problems that, fortunately, can be solved.
